

Please do nothing to interfere with New Jersey's "Do not call" law. Its effectiveness cannot be overstated. Since signing up for it, I have received not one unsolicited sales call and wish to keep it that way. Let the telemarketers find a different prospecting tool other than invading the privacy of we who want nothing to do with them or their products or services.